MISCELLANEOUS READING. DEIFYING THE FEMALE SEX.

Rev. Dr. Alexander, in his recent volume of Sermons, utters the following solemn warning:

What a horrid fraud Satan is practising on the Church in regard to the daughters of the covenant! In fashionable circles-dare I name them Christians-the years where girlhood merges into maturity are frequently sold to the adversary. The young American ments, if there be beauty, almost a miracle seems necessary to prevent the loss of the soul. Behold her pass from the pedestal to the altar. The charming victim is decked for sacrifice. Every breath that comes to her is incense. Her very studies are to fit her for admiration. Day and night, the gay but wretched maiden is taught to think of self and selfish pleasures. Till some Lenten fashion of solemnity interrupt the whirl, the season is too short for the engagement. Grave parents shake their heads at magnificent apparel, costly gems, night turned into day, dances, at which the Romans would have blushed, pale cheeks, bending frames, threatened decay; and yet they allow and submit. And thus that sex, which ought to show the sweet unselfish innocency of a holy youth, is carried to the overheated temples of pleasure .-Thus the so called Christian verifies the Apostle's maxim. "She that liveth in pleasure is dead while she liveth."
